The victims were Mrs. Rita Cyr, 37, Adrian, 19, Leo, 12, Leonard, 5, and Diane, 8, from Maillardville, B.C.

Police said the accident occurred shortly before supper time at the community of Jones Hill.

Only the father, Romeo Cyr, 45, escaped from the car. He is in hospital here with severe head injuries and shock, but his condition is not serious.

VERNON MAN WINS $60,000 IN IRISH DERBY SWEEPSTAKE

A Vernon man, Donald Ross, 30, a funeral director and an active member of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, has won $60,000 in the Irish Derby sweepstake.

He said today he was "overcome" at his good fortune and that "it's too great to take in. This will allow me to clean up a few things."

Mr. Ross held a ticket on second place Vic Mo Chroin. Winner of the race—which brought three Canadians $160,000 each—was outsider Ragusa.

Certain favorite, Relko, on which five Canadians held tickets was surprisingly scratched at the starting post and an investigation is being conducted into this unprecedented move.

The Vernon winner is a married man with no children. His wife, Shirley, is employed as a secretary in the city hall. The couple have just bought a new house at Okanagan Landing.

Pearson 'In Good Shape' After Operation On Neck

OTTAWA (CP)—An obstructed salivary gland was removed successfully from the right side of Prime Minister Pearson's neck in Civic Hospital today.

The 66-year-old prime minister came through the hour-long surgery in good shape and his condition is reported as satisfactory.

The gland obstruction was a cyst and a spokesman for the prime minister's office said the growth was benign. There was no sign of malignancy.

Mr. Pearson, who went into hospital Thursday for a complete physical examination in preparation for the operation, spent about an hour in the operating room. Surgery was performed by Dr. W. Gordon Beattie, the hospital's chief of surgery.

The prime minister is expected to leave hospital during the weekend for a seven- or eight-day recuperative period at the summer residence of prime ministers at Harrington Lake in the nearby Gattineau Hills.

Following the physical examination Thursday night and Friday morning, Mr. Pearson left hospital to dine at home Friday night with Mrs. Pearson. The operation originally was scheduled for Friday morning but was postponed pending completion of the physical examination and tests.

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—A middle-aged man, having failed at reconciliation with his former wife, killed her and wounded eight other persons before taking his own life early today.

Police said Willie B. Williams Sr., 35, shot himself in the chest with the 12-gauge sawed-off shotgun he used during his wild shooting spree.

Police said Williams shot Mrs. Jones and wounded the others after the door to Mrs. Jones' modest two-bedroom apartment was opened to him by a son shortly before midnight.

Williams B. Williams Jr., 32, the berserk gunman's oldest son, and neighbor Linda Robinson, 9, are reported in serious condition in hospital.

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—Police said that a Denver man planned to wipe out his family of 11 early today but stopped after killing his wife and three young children.

They identified him as Luis J. Monge, 45, driver for a mercantile firm.

Investigators said Monge went on the bloody rampage after brooding over personal problems.

Monge's wife, Leonarda, 43, and children Allan, 6, Vincent 4, and Tressa, 11 months, were slain.

Police said Monge first beat his wife to death with an iron bar, stabbed Tressa with a stillie, choked Vincent to death and beat Allan to death in the basement with a bar.

Monge then became an unrepentant, officers said, and called the police.

Seven other children sleeping in another section of the home did not awaken until police arrived. Their ages ranged up to 18.

UN To Probe Vice Reports

NEW YORK (AP)—The United Nations is investigating reports that prostitutes provided the delegates' lounges in search of business.

Secretary General U Thant said Friday the reports were brought to his attention Thursday and he immediately asked for an investigation by UN security officers.

Meanwhile, a spokesman for the U.S. immigration and naturalization service said that Christine Keeler and Mandy Rice-Davies, stars in Britain's Profumo affair of sex and espionage, were in the U.N.

And, he said, they stayed in an apartment one block from the United Nations.

In another development, it was disclosed in criminal court that the FBI and other agencies are investigating the background of Evelyn Davis, 32, who had held a temporary press card as a UN correspondent for a monthly Filipino-American newspaper.

She was to have been sentenced on a prostitution charge, but it was postponed pending the investigations. Police arrested her at her apartment in a midtown hotel last week.

Thant disclosed the UN investigation when a Vietnamese reporter asked him about the arrest of a woman correspondent to the United Nations for prostitution.

Sullen Week for Stocks Waiting for Assurances

The stock market spent a sullen week of low prices and small volume, generally following the lead of Wall Street and awaiting assurance from Ottawa.

With only slight gains recorded on Monday and Friday, the market did not pull out of the seven-point dip of last Thursday. Analysts felt investors have not yet recovered from the post-budget jitters despite the withdrawal of a 30-per-cent tax on sales of large blocks of shares in Canadian companies to foreign investors.

However, brokers say the sinking spell of recent weeks probably won't last in the light of still-buoyant business and better earnings trends in many industries.

WEEK'S NEWS IN REVIEW

Liberals Upheld Twice, UK Vice Hearing Begins

Two Ke Traveling Ward Hearing Begins

President Kennedy and Premier Khrushchev were traveling this week, the United States leader touring Europe on a long-planned trip and the Soviet head in East Berlin for a visit announced only a few days before his arrival there.

Kennedy began his tour Sunday in West Germany, where he visited Bonn, Frankfurt and West Berlin before flying to Ireland Wednesday for a sentimental journey to the land of his forefathers. He was to confer with Prime Minister Macmillan during the week-end.

He received thunderous welcomes from millions of Germans everywhere he went, including 1,000,000 who cheered him as he went to the Communist wall dividing Berlin.

In a keynote speech in Frankfurt Kennedy called for renewed effort to expand and preserve the Atlantic alliance and pledged the risk of U.S. cities to nuclear holocaust in the defence of Europe.

Khrushchev arrived in East Berlin Friday on a trip announced Monday. Polish party chief Wladyslaw Gomulka and Czechoslovak President Antonin Novotny followed the Soviet leader in, and other satellite leaders were expected.

Western speculation that the visit was mainly a propaganda move intended to blunt the impact of Kennedy's jubilant reception in West Berlin swished as the others arrived.

The summit meeting was seen as one which might produce new endorsements of Khrushchev's position to strengthen the Soviet hand in discussions starting July 5 in Moscow with Chinese Communists over policy differences.

CHRISTINE TESTIFIES

The sex side of the Profumo scandal in Britain began to unfold in a London courtroom Friday as model Christine Keeler testified as the prosecution's first witness at the vice hearing of Dr. Stephen Ward.

Joint U.S., Canada Trade Talks Planned To Be Held In Autumn

OTTAWA (CP) — The Canada-United States joint cabinet committee on trade and economic affairs will meet this autumn for the first time since January, 1962.

External Affairs Minister Paul Martin said in an interview Wednesday.

The Canada-U.S. ministerial committee on joint defence, to meet before the end of this year, has not held a meeting since July, 1960.

Mr. Martin said differences in the Canadian and American balance-of-payments situation affect many of the relationships between the two countries. They must be understood on both sides of the border.

The Hyannis Port, Mass., meeting between Prime Minister Pearson and President Kennedy had been a "down-to-earth" approach to the "many serious problems" facing the two countries.

6. Canada's foreign aid programs were under review. The $8,500,000 cut in the Colombo Plan contribution last year should be restored, again raising the total to at least $50,000,000 annually.

7. Steps are being taken toward implementation of the decision to establish a 12-mile fishing zone effective mid-May, 1964.

8. There has been a lessening of labor strife on the Great Lakes since the government had made the U.S. better acquainted with the implications of the shipping disputes.

9. The groundwork has been laid for increased defence production-sharing by Canada and Britain and Canada and the U.S.

10. Canada had helped reach agreement at Geneva whereby negotiations will go ahead among the nations of GATT (General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade) on broad tariff reductions.

Neither country was pretending that right solutions would always be found and carried out or that differences of opinion would suddenly dissolve.

Mr. Martin touched on nearly every aspect of Canadian foreign policy, describing how the two nations were to deal with each other "in a reasonable and sensible manner."

Some of his major points:

1. The outcome of defence policy reviews by NATO and the Canadian Commons defence committee should enable the government to help decide the future shape of Canada's defence effort.

2. The "very existence" of the United Nations had been in question over the question of financing the UN's regular budget and peace-keeping operations.

3. The government had decided to take part in the UN operation in Yemen—about one-quarter of the 200-man UN mission is Canadian—despite "perhaps a hazardous circumstances."

4. A study has started on possible improvements in Canada's military standby arrangements for the UN and possible co-ordination with those of other countries.

5. There is optimism about

THE WEEK IN WEST

A tie-up of shipping on the West Coast was averted, at least temporarily, late this week. More than 2,000 longshoremen at all British Columbia ports were due to strike Friday to backup job security demands. But Thursday night the Shipping Federation of B.C. announced that the strike had been postponed indefinitely and talks between the federation and longshoremen's union would be held during the weekend.

Details of Alberta's medical care insurance program were announced Tuesday. The program, outlined at a press conference by Premier E. C. Manning, his cabinet and representatives of doctor groups and health insurance companies, is voluntary for both doctors and patients. It will be open to all residents—those who have lived in Alberta at least 12 of the previous 24 months—regardless of age, occupation or health. The government will provide subsidies to persons in low-income groups to ensure all can obtain prepaid medical insurance if they wish. The subsidies could benefit an estimated 800,000 residents. Subsidies will be based upon two levels: for persons who have no taxable income and for persons who have up to $500 a year taxable income. The subsidy will be $18 a year for a single person, $42 for a married couple with no children and $72 for a married couple with dependents for those without taxable income. The subsidy will be half these totals for persons with up to $500 taxable income. The plan will go into operation Oct. 1.

POLICE WARNING DRIVE CAREFULLY

Staff Sgt. T. J. Kelly of the Kelowna RCMP asked drivers in Kelowna and district to exercise special caution, due to road and weather conditions over the long weekend.

"As a result of the rain, the roads will be exceptionally slippery. With so many people travelling and conditions as they are, I must ask everyone to exercise the greatest degree of caution, including pedestrians," he said.

Umbrella Weekend Forecast

It looks as though it's going to be a splash-and-flounder holiday weekend.

Strong evidence of this was given by the rain which fell on a fashion more fitting to a monsoon area than the sunny Okanagan.

The Vancouver weatherman, not an excessively cheerful person these past two weeks, is also unhappy today. As if the prospect of a wet Saturday and Sunday weren't enough, he also mournfully predicts some rain at least on Dominion Day itself.

Elgar Choir Here In July

July 15-17 have been the dates set aside for the Elgar Choir of B.C. to visit Kelowna during a provincial tour.

During its stay in Kelowna, the choir's conductor and founder, C. D. Findlater of Vancouver will be seeking young singers who may want to join the choir for its round-the-world tour in the summer of 1964.

Thoughts For July 1 On Church And State

On Monday next Canadian citizens celebrate the 96th anniversary of confederation and the birth of nationhood. In spite of recent outbursts of separatism, there is reason to be grateful for the measure of national unity that has been achieved. Such gratitude for the past and present, however, is purely formal and empty if it does not issue in a quickening of the sense of civic responsibility for the future.

For the Christian the relationship of the Church to the state has never been an easy matter. From earlier Christian times, the attitudes of Christians to the state have varied widely from uncritical acceptance to an equally uncritical rejection of it. Neither extreme attitude is justified by Jesus' teaching or by St. Paul's endeavours to work that teaching out practically. Jesus, in His one explicit reference to the matter, understands the fact that Caesar has his due. Yet loyalty to God is all-embracing. There is no simple answer as to how loyalty to God and relates to and conditions to the state.

The character of the state (unlike that of God) is constantly changing. The state insofar as it provides a framework for wholesome human development and order is a "minister of God." Yet every state has within it the possibility of becoming demonic as has been demonstrated within living memory. Christians are called upon to exercise a discriminating responsibility to the state.

This discriminating responsibility can be expressed in the following ways:

The Christian citizen is committed to maintaining civil order against the threat of anarchy. Human life needs political structures to ensure civil liberties and civil responsibilities. Christians pray for national and political authorities as for those whom God has invested with a sacred trust, whether or not they explicitly recognize God, or their position as that of a trust.

The Christian citizen is committed to the exercise of prophetic criticism of the state. To exempt the state from criticism is to accord it the value of God. Because the state is made up of sinful persons, sin sets expressed in structures and in corporate attitudes.

Where this obtains, human nature is degraded and unhuman.

The Christian citizen acting on the charter of the Gospel of redemption will protest and act against those features in our political life that deprive men of their human and spiritual dignity. This may mean acts of civil disobedience which have as their specific objective the correction of an abuse of power and which cannot be removed by the usual methods of social and democratic change.

The Christian citizen is committed to political responsibility in terms of action to secure the most responsible government. This does not mean that the Church should commit itself to a particular political party. It does mean that individual Christians must decide for themselves on the basis of Christian principle which party represents the best instrument for the securing of those human objectives which will best serve the needs of the nation and of the world insofar as the nation has responsibilities towards it.

The Christian citizen is committed to pursuit of social justice and international peace. No nation is an island unto itself. The pursuit of naked self-interest is from the human point of view, madness; from the Christian point of view, a sin against God and man, made in His image. Canada has an unusual opportunity to give leadership in the ways of social justice and international brotherhood. No Christian citizen can allow this challenge to be restricted only to those who have special political responsibility and authority.

It is with these considerations in mind that the following prayer is offered:

O God, who didst lead the father of our nation into this land of Canada, and hast increased us by thy favor; Grant, we beseech thee, that we who now enter into their inheritance, may prove ourselves a people mindful of thy mercies and ready to do thy will; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

—The Right Reverend W. R. Coleman, D.D., Bishop of Kootenay

Why Not Holiday Here?

Why not this summer get acquainted with B.C.?

We who live in B.C. are inclined to spend our holidays either south of the border or in the prairie provinces where there is a pull for some of us. But perhaps this is the year when we should ask ourselves how long it is since we were over in the Kootenays. Or take that trip we have been promising ourselves up the Cariboo. Or over to the Island.

This is the time of year when B.C. looks its best. The highways are in first class conditions, the accommodation picture is excellent and the quality of meals and service is at a new high.

There is not much point of crossing the border on a shopping trip these days, so why not travel through B.C. and look at the province through the eyes of visitors, say, from Alberta or California. Here we have all the geographic features of the Norwegian fjords, the Swiss Alps, the Arizona desert, the western prairies, the Ontario lake districts. The vacations are cheaper here, the weather better (we hope!) and the scenery more magnificent than anywhere else in the world.

This province spends quite a bit of money to bring visitors here simply because it means revenue for all of us. By the same token, the British Columbian who spends his holiday money within this province is keeping it working at home and thereby he makes an extra contribution to the well-being of all of us.

Let's see B.C. this year!

The Macs And Mcs

Ever try to find in the phone book the number of a friend with a Scots name you're never quite sure of? You may know him as well as the back of your hand but you can never be sure just how he spells his name.

Is it MacLaggart, MacLagart or MacLagart? McLennan, MacLennan or MacLennan? McLean, MacLean, MacClean or MacLaine?

The Okanagan telephone Company did once try to help out by putting all the "Macs" together. Some companies also tried to help by putting at the beginning of the list of Macs, "See also listed under Mac" and vice versa over the Macs.

The other night we discovered to our consternation that our phone book had withdrawn all help. You just solve your own problem. You keep looking until you begin to believe half the names in the phone book are Scots.

You are in good company. It's a problem in Scotland, too. Increased pension cheques are coming to 6,000,000 Scots next month. Last time this happened, the authorities became completely bogged down with the Mcs and Macs.

This time they've asked pensioners to drop the Mcs or Macs from their names and report as Laggart, say, or Lennan, Pherson, Lean, Lavish, Donold, Kenzie and the like. We'd love to know how it works out. Fine, we'll bet, for what Scot wouldn't drop his prefix for a few extra bawbees?

ANN LANDERS

Tell Flat Flossies To Stop Moaning

Dear Ann Landers: I wish these girls would quit crying because they have figures like two ironing boards. My problem is just the opposite and I would gladly change places with any of them. It's easy to add to what you don't have, but nothing can be done when you have too much.

Ever since I was 12, I have been subjected to crude remarks because of generous over-endowment. All through school I've had a collection of private nicknames you wouldn't believe. I tried walking hunched over, carrying my books in front. I wore loose blouses. Nothing helped.

You can't imagine what it's like for a young girl never to be able to wear a sweater or a strapless dress or a low-cut gown. And what a job finding a decent fit! I need a size 10 dress with a 14 top.

So please tell the Flat Flossies to stop moaning. If they had to wear a double D cup they'd know what trouble is.

Dear Ann Landers: I am the mother of four teenagers. They are perilous times for growing up, but I am not concerned even remotely about my daughters. Ann, it's the boys that worry me.

Tom is 16 and Jim 18. They are obedient and respectful, excellent students, well-behaved and outstanding in athletics. So what is the problem? It's that the girls can't after that worrisome look. How much temptation can a young fellow stand?

Now, this school is out the phone ring night and day. Both more, but not before. There are more people here than the other kind. And I'm sure.

Confidentially, the ANNE LANDERS column is one of the most popular in the paper. It's a good thing you're doing it. I'm sure you're getting a lot of good letters.

Had more babies. The 1963 Canadian census shows that the birth rate is up. And I'm sure you're getting a lot of good letters.

WESTBANK — Miss Jo-Anne Duncan, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Duncan, a 1959 graduate of George Pringle Secondary High School, as well as valedictorian in that year, has been awarded a Victorian Order of Nurses bursary of $1,000.

Miss Duncan, at present taking the university nursing course, is studying at UBC and St. Paul's Hospital in Vancouver, and is just now entering her fifth year of study and training.

In a recent report of Westbank Fall Fair directors, Jesse Smith's name was inadvertently omitted from the list. Mr. Smith is director of the class for flowers.

A meeting of officers of Westbank Women's Institute and the Supt. of Kelowna General Hospital held a meeting in Kelowna this week to arrange for application of the money derived from the canvass recently made throughout the district.

Westbank is responsible for the furnishing of two wards in Kelowna General Hospital; a four-bed surgical ward and a two-bed maternity ward, and Dance Student Wins High London Award Jennifer Penney who studied for five years with Miss Gweneth Lloyd and Mrs. Farrally, who are directors of the Canadian School of Ballet, was recently awarded a scholarship of $150 for a talented dancer between the ages of 17 and 21.

This woman and I are now good friends. The secret is to know which people will be off to London and which ones will be taking a solo and which ones will be taking a solo and which ones will be taking a solo.

BC Just Used to Clouds

Not all Canadians are spending this Dominion Day weekend on the beaches or at summer resorts.

Thousands of police across the country—RCMP, provincial police and municipal forces—are patrolling jammed highways and making out a steadily growing list of reports on the maimed and the dead. The Canadian Highway Safety Conference predicted 50 would die in highway accidents during the three-day weekend.

Some 1,200 people are expected at Saturna Island, between Vancouver Island and the British Columbia mainland, for an annual lamb barbecue. Heavy weather predicted for the weekend in most of B.C. isn't likely to deter the crowds, since it's been cloudy over B.C. for nearly two weeks.

The Saree Indians will be hosts at their reserve near Calgary to a massive pow-wow, with visiting Indians from other Alberta tribes, Montana and Saskatchewan. Edmonton will be open to all vernon and diet have piping and dancing competitions at its highland games. A pioneer festival will mark the holiday in Saskatoon, and Winnipeg will have highland games to compete with Edmonton's.

The prairie events should go on under sunny skies and moderate temperatures. But with all the social events, most Canadians will still mark Canada's 90th birthday loading on the beaches or slapping flies at the summer resorts.

BC Refinery Men To Strike

TAYLOR (CP)—Workers at the Pacific Petroleum plant here say they will strike Sunday midnight.

The men, members of the Oil Chemical and Atomic Workers' Union (OCAU), voted 78-1 per cent in favor of a strike to back up wage demands.

The union, along with workers at Kamloops and Vancouver, have accepted a conciliation board recommendation and are asking for a 15-cent hourly increase in a two-year contract, retroactive to February 1. The basic industry wage is not known.

The six large oil companies have rejected the conciliation board recommendation. About 100 men will be affected by the strike here. Conciliation officials say the plant will continue to operate despite the strike.

Unnecessary Visits To Clinic Hit For Rising Medicare Costs

VERNON (CP)—The rising cost of medical care was blamed in part Thursday on patients who make unnecessary calls on doctors and on doctors who over-serve their patients.

Delegates to the annual convention of the Credit Union and Cooperative Health Services Society asked ways be sought to control use of the medical plan.

Members were told that unless some method was found to halt substantial increases in utilization, prepaid medicine would become so expensive few could afford it.

The society's board of directors was authorized to negotiate with the B.C. Medical Association to protest a recent announcement that prepaid medical fees would rise six per cent.

And it was instructed to see what could be done to end unnecessary visits to doctors and over-servicing of patients by doctors.

Both patients and doctors were in danger of "killing the goose that lays the golden egg" through abuse of benefits.

Another resolution authorized the board to offer leadership and guidance to interested parties in setting up an organization to provide management services for employee welfare and pension plans.

Delegates were told the society could not provide this service itself, but since it enjoyed the respect of the trade union movement, it could give leadership to see that the required services were provided on the same basis as the society gives in medical, surgical and wage-indemnity benefits.

The convention decided not to go ahead with plans for prepaid drugs and dental care until a method of controlling costs of providing these benefits was found.

Those receiving awards were: Division one: Linda Carlson, David Henderson and Wendy Swenson. Division two: Irene Humphreys, Donald Catt and Freddie Ziener. Division three: Tommy Palfrey, Clifford Reed, David and Janice Reinhardt. Division four: Della Dunlop, Judy Headington and Albert Stall with honorable mention to Carolyn Bourcet and Danny Warren. Division six: Lynette Adams, Patricia Irons and Kenny Crowder.

Division seven: John Zyp, Lorne Weleschuk and Edyth MacDonald, with honorable mention to Maureen Hesketh. Division eight: Teresa Mallich, Frances Alarie and Brian Holland. Honorable mention to Kelly James. Division nine: Faye Johnson, Kenneth Perry and Deborah Leach with honorable mention to Rickie Morrison and Alan Ray, and division 10: Rene Bourcet, Barbara Alarie and Peter Deuling.

The stage of the activity room was decorated by the grade six girls of division three.

Skinny Little Schoolboy Always Looked to Heaven

AP correspondent James M. Long covered the Vatican during the reign of the two predecessors of Pope Paul VI and has known the new pontiff of the Roman Catholic Church for more than a decade. Beginning a series of three biographical articles on Pope Paul, Long early career as a priest, tells of his boyhood and his early career as a priest.

By JAMES M. LONG
VATICAN CITY (AP)—The skinny little schoolboy who climbed trees faster than any youngster in his town has ascended the throne of St. Peter.

There is reason to suppose that Giovanni Battista Montini—Pope Paul VI—reached the highest office of the Roman Catholic Church in much the same way he climbed to tree tops—with his eyes on heaven and no fear in his heart.

Prime, says the story, "Giovanni Battista was smaller than I was at 10, but he wasn't as strong. I never could figure out why he was so good at climbing trees. He always beat me to the top."

"It wasn't until 50 years later that I learned why. He was archbishop of Milan then, and he told me the secret. 'Look up to heaven when you climb, and fear nothing.'"

The Montini family had lived around the north Italian city of Brescia since the 15th century and had always been close to the church. Members included Donna Ippolita, 16th century abbess of St. Giulia; one early bishop of Brescia, and at least seven priests between 1600 and 1900.

LIVE SIMPLY

Pope Paul was born Sept. 27, 1897, in a two-story home set in a tree-shaded park at Concesio, five miles north of Brescia. It was only 35 miles southeast of Botto il Monte, birthplace of Pope John XXIII.

Concesio and Sotto il Monte are much alike—rolling, hilly, pine foothill valleys under 3,000-foot mountains in rich vineyard and orchard lands. The people live simply, farm industriously and are devout.

The Pope's father was Giorgio Montini, a lawyer who for 25 years ran the Brescia Catholic newspaper Il Cittadino. Three times he was elected to Parliament under the monarchy. In 1924, two years after Benito Mussolini led Italy into fascism, he quit politics.

The future Pope was christened with a weighty name, like most Italian children. He was Giovanni Battista (John the Baptist). Enrico Antonio Maria Montini.

His mother, Giuditta Montini, once called him lovingly "Angelo, Della Famiglia"—the angel of the family.

The family's housekeeper, Anna Mariani, is still alive. She remembers him a little differently.

WAS NO SAINT

"He was not a saint, I tell you."

But she says: "I do not remember that his parents ever had to reprimand him for anything improper anything that any child might not easily do. He was as vicious as any boy his age."

A few months after Giovanni Battista's birth, Giorgio Montini moved his family to a home in downtown Brescia. It was more convenient for his work.

Giovanni Battista and his two brothers grew up there.

His brothers are Lodovico Montini, 60, who served three years as a Christian Democrat.

Later he became a member of the Christian regular contributor to religious journals and who was elected last April to the Italian

Sun Still Shines For Ageing Spahn

The sun still shines for ageing Spahn. The 35-year-old pitcher, who has been in the major leagues for 10 years, is still a force to be reckoned with. He has been a consistent performer, leading the league in wins and strikeouts. His performance has been a testament to his skill and endurance.

BOY! ISN'T THAT A BEAUTY

Al Blaese of Vernon's BK district displays this beauty for the camera. Blaese caught this 13 1/2 lb rainbow trout in Okanagan Lake near Adventure Bay this week. Mr. Blaese has no intentions of mounting the fish. "It will instead be eaten by the whole family," he says. (Courier photo)

Killebrew's Batting Boosts Minnesota

Harmon Killebrew's batting a bit of a tear the past two weeks—and so has Minnesota. The Twins have won 10 of 13 games in that span and are leading the league in wins. Killebrew has collected 22 hits in 51 at bats, with seven homers and 13 runs batted in. He has plenty of support as the Twins made it seven straight over the Senators with 1 1/2 games of the American League lead.

Three Time Loser Named To Stars

NEW YORK (AP) — Little Al Pearce, a three-time loser in the major leagues because of his anemic build and batting average, was named starting center fielder on the American League All-Star team today.

Pearce, traded away by Boston and Washington and released by Baltimore, was rescued from the minors by Angels in 1960. The American League, which divided two games with the National last year, maintains a 17-15 over-all advantage. One game ended in a tie. The leagues return to the one-game plan this year after a four-year double All-Star period.

Anti-Castro Rebels 'Wiped Out'

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Premier Castro told Cuban counter-revolutionaries are being "wiped out" after being abandoned by their late by the very ones who impelled them to these past years.

Castro said in a two-hour speech to sugar workers that the underground has been all but stamped out in the cities by defense committees and other revolutionary groups and now is being eliminated in the countryside.

"Not a single hand will remain, not a single head will remain because the imperialist force that harassed the revolution for four years is starting at its last days," the premier said.

Most of Castro's broadcast speech—monitored in Miami—was devoted to the sugar harvest that has just ended. He said it was the worst crop produced under his regime but promising succeeding harvests will be better.

He blamed unproductive crops, a severe drought and the general problems of the early revolutionary period for the production drops.

"They coincide with the years of mercenary attacks, of economic blockade and of counter-revolution promoted from abroad," he said.

Cabinet Survey Likely Soon

OTTAWA (CP) — Once Parliament disposes of some of the current business, Prime Minister Pearson is expected to make a survey of his ministerial lineup.

A lot of corridor gossip is being devoted to this these days, especially since the recent budget crisis involving Finance Minister Gordon.

There appear to be three possible courses. If the 57-year-old finance minister leaves that portfolio as is widely predicted in the capital, including government circles.

One involves a straight switch of portfolios between Mr. Gordon and Trade Minister Sharp.

A second might be appointment of Mr. Gordon to the Senate when an Ontario vacancy occurs. This would give him free rein to devote his considerable administrative and organizational talents to Liberal party affairs.

A third, apparently the most remote, possibility would be Mr. Gordon's return to business and his retirement from Parliament altogether.

Mr. K In Berlin For Red Summit

BERLIN (AP) — Premier Khrushchev arrived today in East Berlin for a summit meeting with leaders of Soviet-bloc nations.

Khrushchev was accompanied by his wife, Nina, but reports from Moscow made no mention of Soviet spokeswoman Valentina Tereshkova. Rumors have been persistent that he would bring her along.

CNR Income Shows Increase

MONTREAL (CP) — Canadian National Railways net operating income for May was $3,216,000, compared with $2,879,000 for the corresponding month in 1967, the company announced today.

Operating expenses for May were $63,283,000, an increase of $733,000 from $62,550,000.

The company announced a net operating deficit aggregate to May 31 of $2,418,000, compared with $170,000 for the corresponding period in 1967.

Pro-Castroists Hit Venezuela Bridge

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP) — Pro-Castro terrorists dynamited a highway bridge about 2 1/2 miles east of here Wednesday. Police said the explosion was the work of the armed forces for National Liberation, the organization responsible for a recent outbreak of terrorist incidents in Venezuela. An estimated 200 sticks of dynamite ripped apart the base of the bridge, said officers.

PRICES UP

CHILLIWACK (CP) — The price of soft drinks in the Fraser Valley has gone up. A bottle of top in stores from Langley to Boston Bay will cost 12 cents, up a cent. The increases are blamed on higher cost, particularly for sugar.

LITTLE FELLOWS PACK A WALLOP

LOGAN, Ohio (AP) — The Pro-Castro baseball League game here Tuesday night between eight and nine-year-olds must have been some thing to see.

The score, 680 in favor of the Hooker Brothers dairy team.

There were 21 home runs in the six-inning game. And the star? He was Max Shaw, 9, who had a perfect day at the plate, six hits, four in a row, a triple, a single and a walk.
